History
The CUMC Queer & Ally Partnership began in 2009 as a way for students from different CUMC schools to connect with one another while working to promote the needs of LGBTQA students.

Mission
For the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and allied community at all Columbia University Medical Center schools and programs to:

- Promote and serve diversity, health, and wellness,
- Create safe opportunities to build a social network and community,
- Advocate for equality, visibility, and recognition

For more information about QAP or to join our listserv, contact the CUMC Center for Student Wellness @ studentwellness@columbia.edu